Farm Credit Fly-In & Marketplace Reception

November 5, 2025

Capitol Hill and The Wharf

Nearly 1,000 Farm Credit customers, directors and employees will gather in Washington, D.C. to showcase how Farm Credit continues to fulfill its mission of supporting rural communities and agriculture. We invite you to join us for a congressional reception celebrating the farmers and ranchers we proudly serve and featuring the exceptional products they produce.

This event has been designed to comply with House and Senate ethics rules. This event has also been designed to comply with executive branch ethics rules. Executive branch employees should discuss with their ethics officer before attending.
